

STATISTICS

Chapter 1

Our Groups

قناة الاكاديمية

Telegram

Chapter 1: What is Statistics?

1. Exam grades (Excellent, Very good, Good, ...) is an example of:

- A) Discrete Quantitative Variable
- B) Nominal Qualitative Variable
- C) Continuous Quantitative Variable
- D) Ordinal Qualitative Variable

2. Time required to complete a questionnaire is an example of:

- A) Ordinal Qualitative Variable
- B) Nominal Qualitative Variable
- C) Discrete Quantitative Variable
- D) Continuous Quantitative Variable

3. The data collected for the first time is known as:

- A) Primary data
- B) Series
- C) Secondary data
- D) Data

ثانياً: تمارين التصنيف (متغير كمي أم نوعي)

4. Height in inches of females at your university:

- A) Qualitative variable
- B) Quantitative variable

5. Number of students in each section of Introduction to Statistics Course:

- A) Qualitative variable
- B) Quantitative variable

6. Rating a taste of cooking (excellent, good, Fair, poor):

- A) Qualitative variable
- B) Quantitative variable

7. Region in which a person lives:

- A) Qualitative variable
- B) Quantitative variable

Chapter 1: What is Statistics?

8. Taste ranking (excellent, good, Fair, poor):

- A) Nominal data
- B) Ordinal data

9. Type of cars you have:

- A) Nominal data
- B) Ordinal data

10. Your favorite color (Brown, Yellow, Red, ...):

- A) Nominal data
- B) Ordinal data

11. Name of private companies in your city:

- A) Nominal data
- B) Ordinal data

12. Population in a particular region:

- A) Discrete data
- B) Continuous data

13. A person's body temperature:

- A) Discrete data
- B) Continuous data

14. Time required to complete a questionnaire:

- A) Discrete data
- B) Continuous data

15. Number of claims received by an insurance company during one day:

- A) Discrete data
- B) Continuous data

ARMS
ACADEMY

STATISTICS

Chapter1

استثمر في تعليمك اليوم ، لتحصد
ثمار ذلك غداً

Our Groups

قناة الاكاديمية

Telegram